

Display Case Statement

The Hyrum Library has precedence in use of all display areas for promotion of their programs and materials.

Non-profit community groups advertising themselves or their programs have second priority in use of space.

Exhibits and displays must be arranged with the director.

Length of time that the display or exhibit will be shown will be agreed upon before it is set up.